MEDINIAN 1969

Volume XLVI

Published by

The Annual Staff

Foreword

The purpose of this yearbook, as in the many volumes published before it, is to portray in pictures and copy, the events of the past school year.

It is not always easy to remember everything that happened after the excitement has worn off. The names and faces of many friends and teachers are soon forgotten, along with the memories of favorite classes, exciting football and basketball games, and those boring study halls.

During the year, time seemed to drag, but looking back, it seems to have passed all too quickly.

It is our hope that this book will preserve the many memories that might have been lost — memories of your days at MHS.

English and Language Departments Greatly

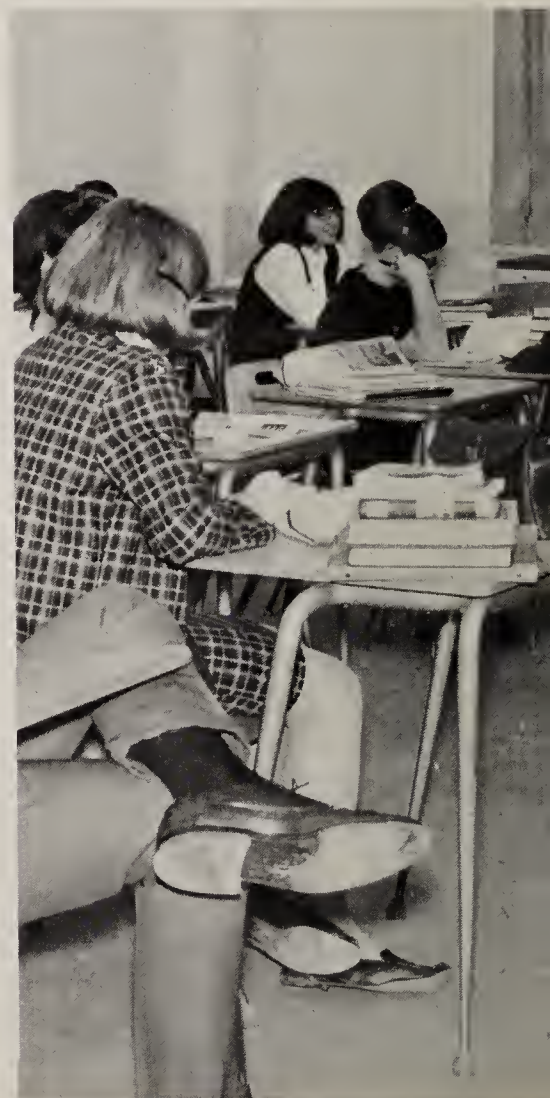

Roger Martin breathes a sigh of relief and returns to his seat after giving an English report.

Gayla Calvert tries to translate some French for her classmates but she's having a rough time!

Brian Beck and Paul Sevougian try to look like they're paying attention in Miss Muren's German class.

Improved With the Use of Modern Equipment

Barry Muha declares his heated passion for Karla Jakubec. Shouldn't someone tell Mr. Bosler that these scenes should be private?

Medina's English and language departments have grown and improved in the past year. Excellent courses in Spanish, Latin, German, and French are available to students. Advanced Placement Spanish is also available to seniors.

Audio-visual aids and the language lab enable students to further their understanding of the language and the country.

The English department also offers a variety of courses, including AP English, Business Communications – both for seniors, Speech I and II, and American Heritage which combines English III and American history for juniors. Freshman classes concentrate mostly on grammar, while the upper classes explore the world of literature. A highlight of the year was the showing of five great, all-time movies.

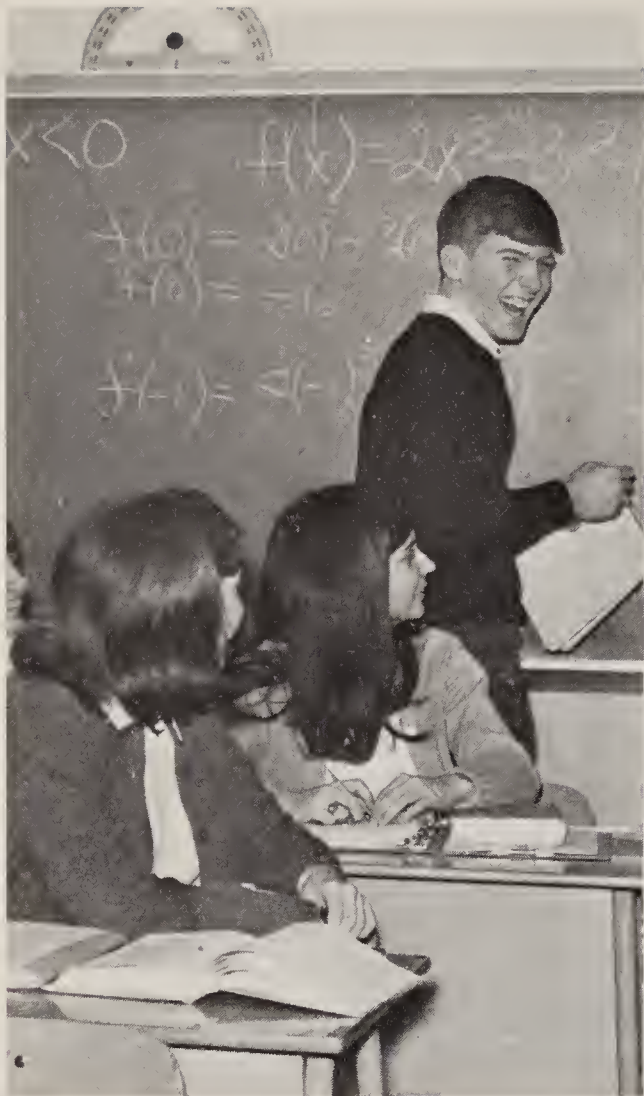

Above: Mark Feldman says, "What is that hand doing on my shoulder?" Wait 'til he finds out what lands on his head!

Mathematics and Science

Left: Really, Bill! What's so funny about that calculus problem?

Above: Joe Cendro is so excited about the prospect of doing his math, we can just see the enthusiasm glowing in his eyes.

Judging from all the apparatus on the table, Nan Shurance and Sharon Brugmann must be doing the most complicated experiment in the physics book.

Mr. Brewer just puts in the formula, turns the crank, and out comes the answer!

Hold the Key to the Future

Above: Mark, you'll never learn geometry if you don't pay attention when Mrs. Whitman is trying to help you!

Below: Mike Groetz and Kurt Friday are finding out just what makes that creature work.

Below: Marianne Cochran says, "Oh, Sue, look at all the pretty colors!" in biology class.

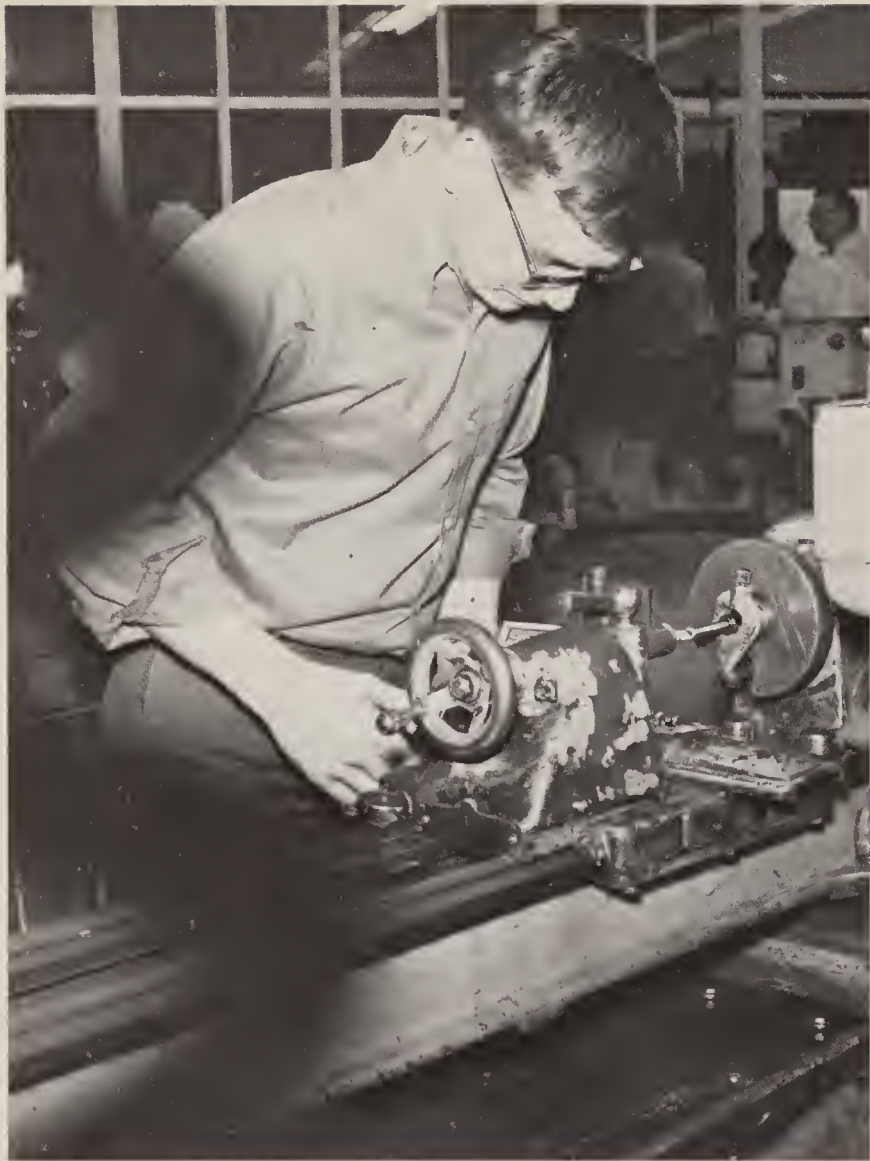

Two departments providing courses that give the student useful, factual knowledge are the mathematics and science departments.

In the math department, courses range from the strictly practical to the abstract. On the practical side, there are courses such as general math, which give the vocationally-oriented student a working mathematical knowledge. On the other end are courses such as calculus and slide rule, for the college-bound student.

Much of science is based on mathematical properties. Therefore, some math courses are co-ordinated with science courses by grade. From ninth grade physical science through senior physics, with biology and chemistry between, the student gains a well-rounded scientific knowledge.

COE girls Bea Dunbar, Barb Gorey, and Sharon Fiser learn to use business machines in the classroom portion of their course.

Vocational and Business Departments Grow

Are Don Bryenton and Marv Grieve smiling about their typing ability or the fun they're having in class?

Mr. Celidonio gives Rob Nichols some assistance.

A department which has been receiving increased attention recently at MHS is the vocational department. This department has been growing steadily with the addition of new cooperative programs yearly. In addition to on-the-job programs, many shop courses and home economics courses are offered.

The business department, a subgroup of the vocational department, prepares many students for secretarial work, and has an on-the-job program of its own, with more to be instituted in the future.

Right: Sue Pursley and Jody Hardinger check the paper to see how much money they're earning in the stock market. Buying and selling stock was just part of the experience seniors gained in Economics class. Their year-end profit was donated to Dollars for Scholars.

Left: Ken Canfield seems rather uninterested in the experiment Mr. Pilarski is doing. Or is he afraid of the poor little white mouse?

Art and Social Studies Departments Offer Variety

Miss Lawrence and Gym Leader Sue Lipstreu help freshman gym students leap over that Crazy Horse.

Miss Huddle shows Bob Ward how the boot kicks the football. Much more fun than World History!

The Social Studies Department of Medina has become larger and better. Besides Civics and Economics, which are senior requirements and American History, which is a junior requirement, World History, Psychology, and Sociology are also offered to students.

The Art and Music Departments are equally important. Students have the choice of band, choir, and orchestra, as well as Music Theory.

In the Art Department, Art, Crafts, and Art History and Appreciation are offered.

Beginning this year, only freshmen and sophomores are required to participate in physical education, although it is also open to upperclassmen.

Two members of the Medina chapter of FMA (Future Millionaires of America) peruse their favorite periodical.

Marianne Edwards
General Office

Jean Titus
Secretary to Mr. Dague

Cafeteria Personnel: Shirley Palinchik, Alma Kern, Lucy Rogers, Mary Fry, Dolores Summers, Betty Balough, Theresa Gienke, Kathryn Trainor, Lillian Karaffa, Sally Failor, Stella Fiser.

Alverta Shelton

Harvey Carter

Library and Office Aids Add to Efficiency

Library Aids: Jeff Bixby, Debbie Eckert, Judy Denson, Donna Falconer, Doraina Hunter, Gayla Calvert, Janet Rodgers, Beverly Stillman, Debbie Kemp, Mrs. Hubbard.

Many students give of their free time to aid in the smooth operation of MHS.

Library aids handle such tasks as checking out books, checking for overdue books, recording returned books and checking fines.

Students who work in the general offices may answer the telephone, greet visitors, count money, run errands for the secretaries or the principals, summon students for various reasons, and in general be pleasant to all who visit the office for one reason or another.

Office Volunteers: Sandy Biggs, Kathy Batchelder, Candy Davis, Carol Biliczky, Lisa Shirey, Kris High, Wendy Marquardt, Karyn Wilson, Beth Walter, Barbara Parker.

Middle Left: With the day's work all done (?) Mr. and Mrs. Holden and Mr. Dailey look forward to a leisurely evening.

Middle Right: Mr. Carey makes like swing — or at least the way he'd like his group to perform.

Lower Left: Mr. Brewer attempts to stay one day ahead of his class in ungraded math.

Lower Right: Dougie has a wonderful time playing in the gook.

Hard Breaks and Formidable Opponents

Pat Karson (81) calls the defensive signals for a determined Medina defensive team.

1969 FOOTBALL RESUME

An unknown Olmsted Falls pass defender tries to keep Kyle Harrington from catching one of Glenn Olds' passes. It was good as Medina defeated OF for Medina's first homecoming victory in six years.

The Battling Bees opened their 1968 football season meeting Cloverleaf. The Bees lost to the Colts, but the next week they were victorious. For the first time in history, Medina played Brunswick's Blue Devils, winning by a score of 40-14.

The opening Southwestern Conference game for the Bees was lost to Westlake. Defeats at the hands of Bay Village and Avon Lake followed. The next game against Olmsted Falls was Homecoming, and the Bees were to meet the Bulldgos before their Queen. The Bees showed their streak of championship as they beat Olmsted 8-0. This was also outstanding because it was the first time in six years that Medina had won a Homecoming game.

Just as things were looking up for the Bees, they met a team from Fairview and the Bees lost this one. The next games were against North Olmsted and Wadsworth as the Bees held their heads up high and lost to both, fighting till the end of the game.

It was still an impressive football season, despite quite a few letdowns that might have made a difference; However, our team again proved its right to the title "The Medina Battling Bees."

Medina Battling Bees Defeat Olmsted Falls

Stan McLain arrives to help Rick Williams pull down a Cloverleaf back.

Larry Collins seems to be undecided as to which way he should run.

Terry Scherz hustles downfield for a block as Ken McEwen follows him with a tackler hanging on.

Mark Hunter turns on the speed as he easily outruns his following tacklers.

Tim Caverly provides interference for Scott Febus as they try to turn the corner.

for First Homecoming Victory in Six Years

Ken McEwen runs into two tough tacklers as Glenn Olds and Larry Collins turn to see if their fake worked.

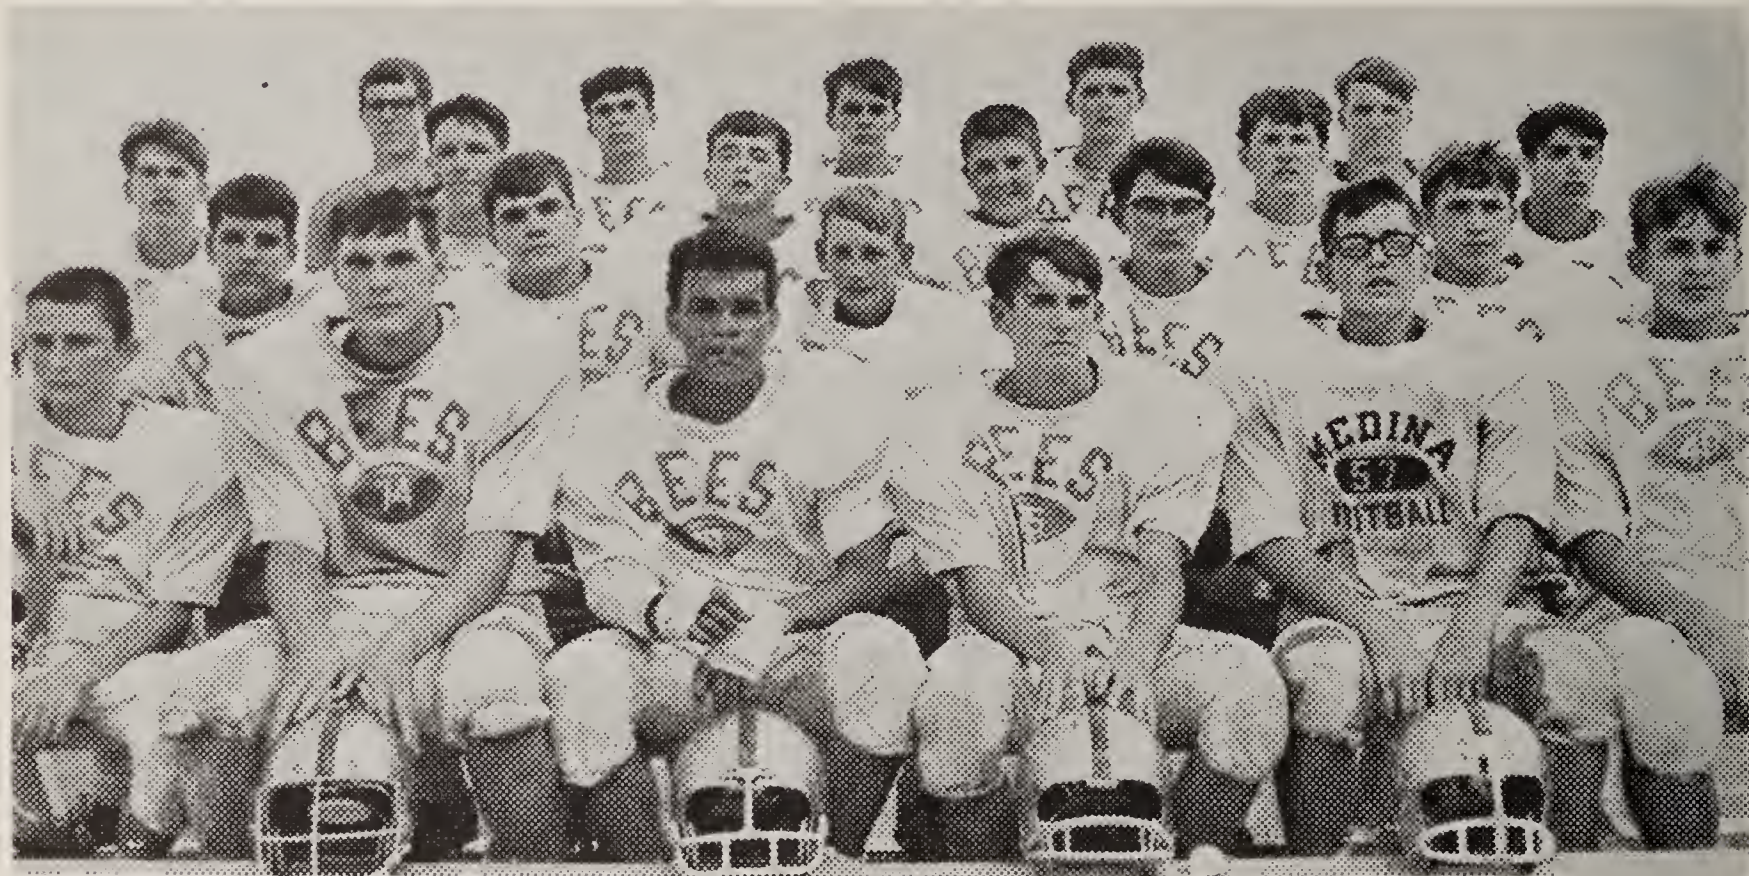

Arvid Nord watches Larry Collins get tackled as he gets to a block just a little too late.

Olds is ready to throw the bomb as he waits to see an open receiver downfield.

With the 1969 Medina baseball team out of tournament play, but only after winning the sectional and then losing a tough game to St. Joseph's, 2-0, which put Medina in the district runner-up position, the Bees concentrated on winning the conference. With a second loss to Bay Village, the Bees' conference title hopes were destroyed. However, these players compiled the most impressive season record of any Medina Baseball team with 12 wins and 6 losses. They also gave Medina its first SWC winning season with an 8 win-6 loss record.

A Junior Varsity baseball team was introduced into Medina this year. These underclassmen baseballers gave a glimpse of a bright future for Medina's high school baseball.

1969 VARSITY TRACK SCORES

Medina		Opponents
108	Cloverleaf	9
73	Bay Village	70
68½	Fairview	40
92½	Rocky River	34
106	Avon Lake	21
70	Wadsworth	57

Olmsted Falls	16
Westlake	51
North Olmsted	32½

Westlake Relays:	Second Place
Berea Relays:	Seventh Place
District Meet	Third Place
Southwestern Conference:	First Place
Medina Invitational:	First Place

For the first time ever at Medina High, the Bees track team won the SWC championship. The exiting finish held fans in suspense til the last event. This was the mile relay and the Bees were trailing Bay 51-50. Bay's relay team held the lead until the final round. At this point, Larry Collins took the lead and then finished in second, ahead of Bay to give Medina the win, 54-53.

The proud Medina Track coach, Mr. Swinglish, is shown holding the trophy his trackmen won at the SWC track meet.

John Gulledge displays the stamina that he has acquired through hard practice as he pulls away from the other runners.

Jim Krejci's form looks good as he attempts another discus throw.

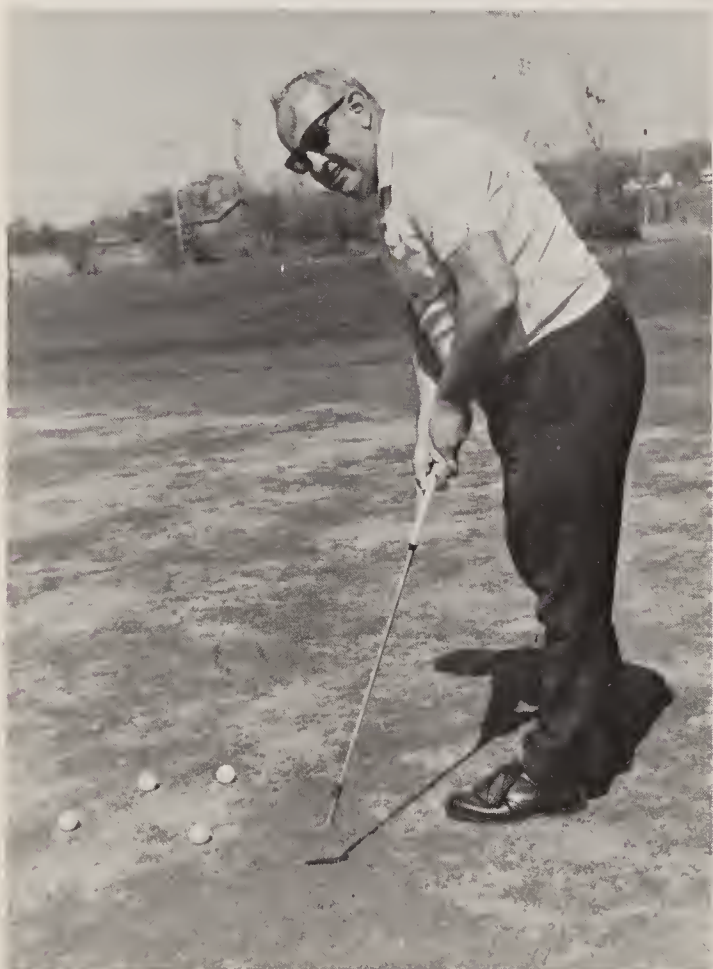

The expression on Mark Hunter's face shows the effort and dedication one must have in order to win the 880 yd. dash, especially when it is a wet, cold day.

Future Is Bright for Medina Linksmen

Although their season was not impressive, the MHS golfers of the future have ability to become conference contenders. Bill Nord in particular looks like a future medalist as he took the Most Valuable Golfer award.

Front: Hal Kahn, John Fleming, Rob Wilder, and Larry Brumby. Standing: Coach Dave Stephenson, Scott Burlingame, Mike Hattery, and Paul Vandenberg.

The Medina cheerleaders, by far the best-looking sports squad of the year, put in much time to cheer our teams to victory. Not only did the girls cheer at football and basketball games, but they spent plenty of time practicing cheers, making up new ones, and planning pep assemblies. The girls also decorated for the sports banquets.

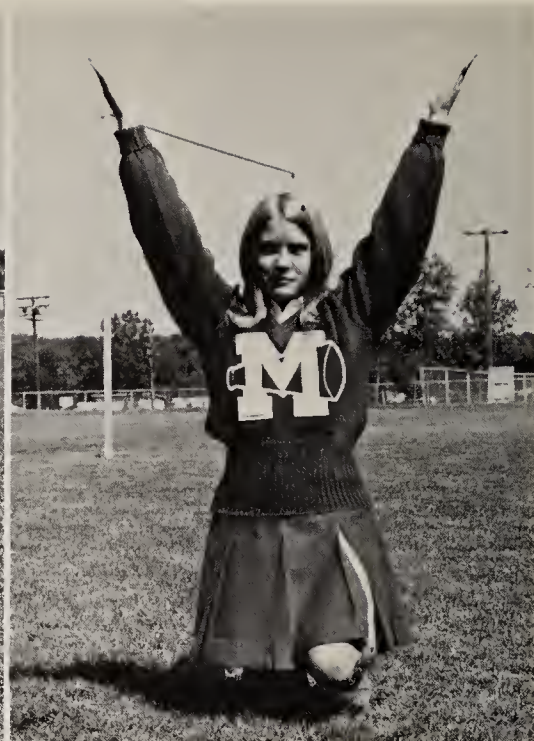

Rhon Craig and Dave Flugum performed gymnastic stunts at football games and pep assemblies.

ACTIVITIES • ORGANIZATIONS

Marching Band Personnel: FLUTES: Kathy Wiles, Beth Wells, Judy Barabas, Pat Tucker, Harriett Laird, Donna Falconer, and Becky Rowlands. CLARINETS: Karen Schlechty, Sandy Johnson, Debby Zarney, Gayle Bixler, Joyce Parman, Pam Williams, Ron Smith, Jane Pennington, Vickie Andrews, Kathy Smith, Phyllis Yeager, Sharon Knowles, Vicky Randall, Eric Daniell, Sandy Cowden, Regina Spies, Eileen Kovacek, Debbie Nees, Carol Biliczky, Sandra Holt, Sherry Quati, Sherry Starr, and Denise Morton. SAXOPHONES: Marianne Tyler, Barbara Yeager, Brian Beck, Liz Smith, Bob Drogell, Jim Spacek, Mary Leister, Alan Huston. CORNETS: Ronda Packard, Sue Jindra, Beth Walter, Peggy Mihalko, Wayne Huston, Don Gifford, David Ingram, Tom McCourt, Alan Clark, Don Plummer, Claudia Grieve, Janice Churgovich, Pam Smalley, Bev Kulp, Mark Koch, Marcia Suddleson, Charlotte Mealy, James Davis, David Machles, George Ritter, Bonnie Friedt, Sue Cowden, Amy Abramaska, Cindy Betz, Joyce Nettleton, Brenda Koenig, John Markle, and Claudia McComas. TROMBONES: Chris Chandler, Robert Wilder, Charles Rodgers, Allen Boyer, Holly Klopp, Jeff Myers, and John Baker. BARITONES: Lloyd Steffen, Cindy Naragon, Cathy Acker, and Ed Schlechty. DRUMS: Kathy Steffens, Marcia Riegger, Candy Davis, Sue Goodrich, Brad Bader, Chris Gensemer, Pam Komjati, Harry Lennex, Richard Linek. BASSES: Connie Abell, Thom Baker, Joel Ewing, Dennis Jennings, Steve Clay, James Smith, Dave Moine, and David Guinn.

Upper Right: Here is something that is familiar to anyone who has ever been to a football game; the band in block formation. Marcia Riegger, foremost in the picture, is assistant line leader to Kathy Steffens.

Lower Right: Sometimes sectionals are needed to make sure that everyone knows his part. Here the basses, baritones, and trombones undergo the grilling supervision of an instructor.

The Medina Musical Bees Marching Band

DRUM MAJOR: Mark Bixler

BATON TWIRLER: Gene Steiner

DIRECTORS: Mr. Bixler and Mr. Carey

Marching season again got off to a fine start in the last two weeks in August. Line leaders tried (TRYED) to get their lines into shape for the opening football game with Cloverleaf High School. This year the Musical Bees got all-weather rain coats — which helped keep bandsmen warm during those cold football games. Again the band put on a light show with red, white, and blue lights pinned to their uniform legs. The band traveled to the Akron Rubber Bowl for a guest appearance at a soccer game. The Medina County Bandorama was a huge success, in which all the county bands performed.

Medina's Concert Band Gains Excellent State

CONCERT BAND: Row 1: P. Tucker, K. Wiles, P. Smalley, J. Barabas, H. Laird, B. Wells, B. Rowlands, D. Falconer. Row 2: K. Schlechty, S. Johnson, R. Spies, G. Bixler, R. Smith, E. Kovacek, V. ## Pepsters Pep People

If you stepped into the MHS lobby after school during the season of any varsity sport, you were sure to see long sheets of paper and many girls with paintbrushes in hand. These were Pep Club members, and the result of their work could be viewed any game day in the front of a cheerfully decorated school.

Then there was Card Section, whose members practiced long hours to learn new cheers. Their green derbies and vests added a bright touch to all home games.

Other activities of Pep Club included baking goodies for football brothers and promoting pep in school.

Right: Vice-President Kate Dwyer, Secretary-Treasurer Sue Goodrich, and President Jane Cantwell take inventory of Card Section equipment.

Girls' Athletic Association is one of the many traditional clubs at MHS. The club promotes athletic ability among its members, through such events as basketball games, baseball games, volleyball, Play Days, and potlucks. The large club gains membership each year as more and more freshmen suffer the tortures of initiation, under the sadistic eye of seasoned seniors. But they lived through it - just barely.

Above: Medina's Homecoming is sponsored by the Student Council. Here, Student Council Prexy Dennis Sepper escorts Queen Claudia to present the football to Ken McEwen.

Lower Right: All student council members are engrossed in plans for future events.

For the first time in the history of Student Council at Medina, Student Council became more of an organization instead of a country club. The credit is mainly due to Dennis Sepper – President, Mimi Brown – Vice-President, Mark Bixler – Treasurer, and Chris Chandler – Secretary. These four officers worked well together to do what had to be done; they organized Homecoming (bonfire, pre-game events, and dance), Sadie Hawkins Dance, and rewrote the entire Student Council constitution. Dennis presided at assemblies, whether pep, festive, or educational.

Drama Club Presents Quality Productions

Drama Club, advised by Mr. Stan Bosler, was more ambitious than ever this year. Two full-length plays were produced in the fall and spring for presentation to the community. These were The Glass Menagerie and Thurber Carnival. Other public presentations included a children's play and several student-written one-acts. One play, The Lottery, was presented in a student assembly.

Membership and participation in Drama Club were increased this year under officers Vicki Andrews – President, Roxie Haas – Vice-President, Cindy Been – Secretary, and Nancy Been – Treasurer.

The highlight of Drama Club activity came on May 2 and 3, when the spring play, Thurber Carnival, was produced. This was actually a series of several small plays by James Thurber. Major roles in this play were fairly evenly distributed throughout the cast; there were no actual major roles. Some of the people in this play included John Harvey, Linda Wagner, Brian Beck, Donna Scott, Dave Flugum, Mike Donovan, and Sue Cowden.

Right: Silence! A Drama Club meeting is in progress.

MEDINIAN Staff Strives to Produce Better Annual

Row 1: Anne Krosse – Ads, Tena Johnson – Classes, Bonnie Dreibelbis – Editor, and Sandy Schmitzer – Classes. Row 2: Bonnie Meyers – Special Events and Music, Debbie Hallock – Classes, Dianne Taylor – Business Management, Rick Williams – Sports, and Candy Davis – Faculty. Row 3: Bill Harriger – Sports, Kris Wolf – Faculty, Melissa Eddy – Copy, Mr. Webb – Adviser, and Carol Biliczky – Organizations.

Each member of the 1969 Medinian staff has his own particular memories of working on the yearbook. The sports editors remember trying to locate the sports pictures. The class editors remember countless layouts and endless retyping. The business and advertising managers remember trying to keep the bills straight. These are just a few of the things that must be done to produce a yearbook.

Despite all these problems (and MORE), the yearbook was assembled and deadlines were met due to the organizational efforts and plain hard work of Editor Bonnie Dreibelbis and the rest of the staff. We think it was worth the effort.

Class editors Sandy Schmitzer and Debbie Hallock check out pictures and names.

GLC Members Have Rewarding Year

Below: Marcia Riegger, like all other GLC members, must learn to be a good salesman.

The members of GLC all had basketball brothers. Here Christy Chandler puts the finishing touches on that devil, Mike Hattery's locker.

Girls Leaders Club was the only exclusive girls club at MHS. To be admitted to the club, a girl had to have maintained grades of a B-average, and have no grade below a C- in a major subject. A girl had to be a junior or a senior. She was admitted to the club after the voting of the other GLC members.

GLC promoted many worthwhile projects for the school and community. The group "adopted" old people from the county home, and visited and sent them small gifts. Members again sold tickets at basketball games and football games. The major fundraising project was the sale of sweatshirts, T-shirts, jackets, and nightshirts. The "traveling basket" continually circulated through the club, as the girls exchanged gifts in alphabetical order. Every girl had a basketball brother and a secret pal.

The officers of Girls Leaders Club were Jane Pennington – President, Kathy Batchelder – Vice-President, Chris Chandler – Secretary, Beth Walter – Treasurer, and Debby Zarney – Chaplain.

Something for Everyone in the Medinamite

One Wednesday of every month was brightened by the appearance of the Medinamite. The paper always contained something of interest to everyone, from fashions to sports. One issue of the Medinamite was accompanied by copies of People, an anonymous underground newspaper.

Through Participation in Audio Club

The expanded Audio Visual Club this year consisted of twenty-two members and adviser Mr. Bosler. Officers were Ralph Cripps – President, Jeff Borden – Vice-President, Ron Smith – Secretary, and Jim Stone – Treasurer.

The only prerequisite for membership in the AV Club is an interest in radio programming. Members learn basic broadcast techniques and then put their knowledge to practical use by producing noon shows. As an attempt to raise money, the club sponsored a teen canteen.

The Contemporary Affairs Association was reorganized this year by a group of interested boys. Membership in this club is limited to juniors and seniors, but any upperclassman interested in contemporary affairs was welcome to join.

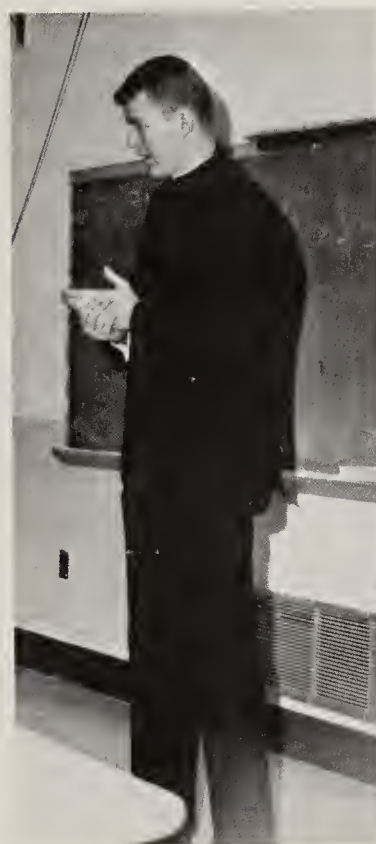

Activities for the year included meetings and speakers. One speaker was a professor from Jordan, who spoke on the Middle East. Another was Father Dennis Tomczyk from St. Francis Xavier, speaking on changes in the Church. In one meeting, CAA members watched the TV bulletins of the presidential election. In another meeting, the pros and cons of gun control were discussed.

CAA proved highly enjoyable and educational this year under Craig Van Horsten – President, Tim Myers – Vice-President, Karen Schlechty – Secretary, and Rob Wilder – Treasurer.

Medina Future Teachers Gain Experience

Above: Lynn Houston looks a little blank — her student just asked for some help with the new math.

A perennial club at MHS is FTA, composed this year mostly of juniors and seniors. The purpose of the club is to give members an insight into the teaching profession. Several speakers were invited to meetings to give the students theoretical knowledge, and substituting in the elementary schools afforded some practical experience.

Jill Harsin was President, Pam Smalley — Vice-President, Sue Jindra — Secretary-Treasurer, and Debbie Nees — Program Chairman.

Diversified Cooperative Training or DCT, is the branch of Medina's vocational educational program designed to produce skilled workers. The twenty-five members of this class all spent half of their school day on the job. After graduation, most found that they had jobs waiting for them.

Part of the curriculum of DCT includes membership in VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. In November, VICA members attended a state convention, where Medina Chapter President Dave Hanshue ran a close second in his bid to be elected as state president. Another high point of VICA's year included the Employer-Employee banquet, held in the spring.

DECA, or Distributive Education Clubs of America, is an integral part of the classroom work in the Distributive Education program. Every DE student is in DECA, and as a result of this unity, DECA is one of the most active and productive clubs in the school.

The prime purpose of the club is to bring about a thorough knowledge of the free enterprise system. This is accomplished through classwork and on-the-job training. DECA also carries out other activities. This year they sponsored dances, car washes, and bake sales. They also attended various regional and state conventions and ended the year with the annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

DECA officers this year were Bill Rose — President, Craig Clasen — Vice-President, Dave Roberts — Treasurer, Helen Dunn — Secretary, and Pat Jennings — Chaplain.

A new form of on-the-job vocational education was initiated at Medina this year. This group was COE, or Cooperative Office Education. These students, already proficient in business skills, spent a half of their school day on the job as secretaries or other related positions.

Since COE was a new club, its extracurricular activities were slightly limited for financial reasons. However, the group gathered food and other articles for a needy family at Christmas, and, like other vocational clubs, held an employer-employee spring banquet. In addition, several COE girls won various awards at COE contests.

Left: Here, President Anne Krosse and Treasurer Marsha Hausman review the COE charter. This year Kathy McClaskie was Vice-President, Dianne Taylor was Secretary, and Sharon Fiser served as Historian.

Work-Study Club Enables Students to Work and Learn

A new vocational club at Medina this year was the Work-Study Club. Its purpose, as stated by adviser Mr. Fenn, is as follows: "To develop an awareness and understanding of the job and social skills needed for successful employment and good citizenship."

There are several phases of study included in this program. It is open to students of sophomore standing and higher. All students enrolled in the program studied for half a day at school, and spent the last half of the day on the job. Students worked as cafeteria help or office help, while older students worked outside the school in an actual job situation.

One of the most ambitious extracurricular activities of the group was the sale of hot chocolate and doughnuts in the mornings before school, much appreciated on those cold winter mornings. Other activities included bake sales, a car wash, and sponsorship of a Teen Canteen held in March.

Phil Greene served as President of Work-Study. The other three officers were Kathy Simmons – Vice President, Theresa Bayless – Secretary, and Gary Presock – Treasurer.

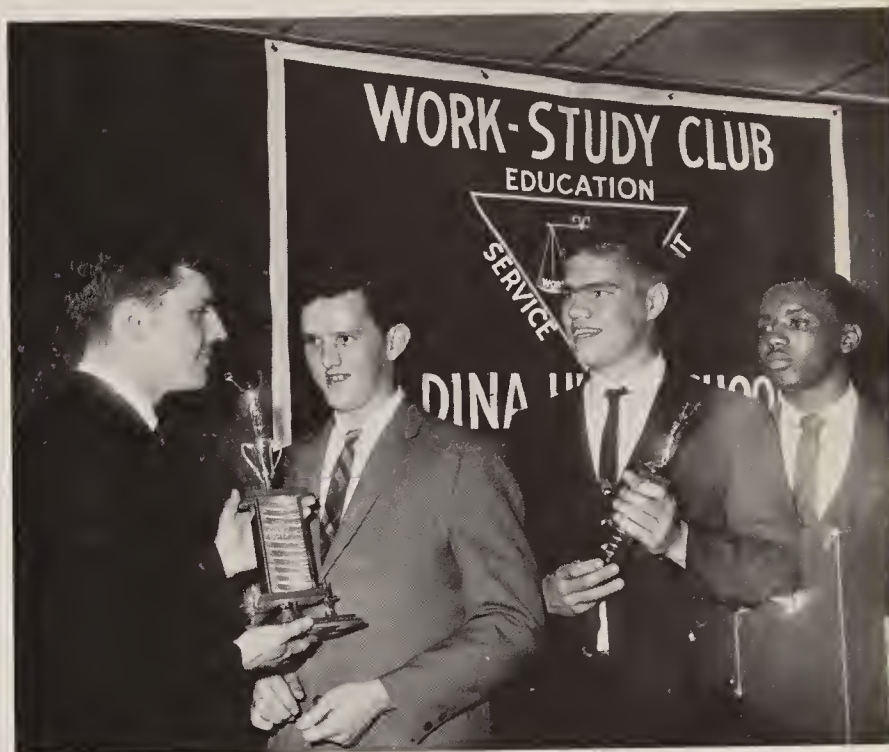

Top: Here is Theresa Bayless, diligent worker for Mr. Dague during sixth period every day.

Bottom: Is Bill Yoder thinking hard, or is he just sleepy? Bill got his job experience this year in helping keep the school clean for the rest of the student body – something they much appreciated.

Varsity M Promotes Sports

The Varsity M Club, consisting of all varsity lettermen, purchased some new football apparatus for MHS with the money the club made by its various projects. These included selling programs at basketball games and sponsorship of a basketball game with radio station WHLO.

Officers of the club included Mark Hunter – President, Larry Collins – Vice-President, Bob Yaekle – Treasurer, and Scott Febus – Secretary.

Gym Leaders Organize

A new club at MHS this year was Gym Leaders Club. Since gym became an elective this year for juniors and seniors, those upperclassman girls who took gym were eligible for this club, whose purpose was to help run underclassman gym classes.

Upper Left: Denise Donahey and Cindy Rych help (force?) a young contortionist through a parallel bar stunt.

Y-Teens is the teenage section of the YWCA. Its purpose is to aid girls in social and religious growth. This year's president was Nancy Mann; adviser was Miss Cross.

One of the major annual projects of the Medina Y-Teens was running a coat-check at each home basketball game. This business was as thriving as usual this year, and the girls were always kept busy hanging up coats.

Other activities of this year's Y-Teens included a slumber party, bake sale, and a weekend trip to Washington D. C.

Right: Mary Lou Hobson and Pam Meurer had a good time in Washington D. C. – but they found themselves rather homesick!

Future Business Leaders of America

1968-1969 was Future Business Leaders of America's first year at Medina High, but it was a rewarding one. The purpose of the club was to make better business leaders out of the members of the organization. Qualifications for membership in the club were lax, in order to promote participation in the club: one had to pay $1.50 dues, and attend meetings. Club members attended a convention in Cincinnati in March. The club sponsored a teen canteen and a car wash to help raise money.

This year's FBLA officers were Mary Leister – President, Stephanie Hobb – Vice-President, Debbie Mack – Secretary, and Cheryl Gallucci and Candy Davis – Publicity. Mr. Phillips served as the club advisor.

Row 1: M. Leister, S. Hobb, D. Mack, C. Gallucci, and K. Rockwell. Row 2: H. Lennex, N. Mann, B. Kenzig, B. Raker, P. Jennings, and K. Phillips. Row 3: Mr. Phillips, M. Cavey, B. Gilles, C. Davis, L. ## Math Club Studies Higher Principles

One of the few honorary clubs at Medina Senior High is the Math Club. The prime qualification for membership in the club is enrollment in the AP math class, and the other is an interest in learning more about mathematics.

The Math Club officers for this year included John Haas – President, Dave Sevougian – Vice-President, and John Kowal – Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Brewer again acted as club adviser.

Row 1: Mr. Brewer, J. Haas, D. Sevougian, and J. Kowal. Row 2: C. Chandler, M. Tyler, M. Brown, K. Bonadio, and M. Scott. Row 3: B. Dreibelbis, B. Bedford, C. Rych, S. Brugmann, and R. Clay. Row 4: R. Smith, D. Sepper, G. Steiner, D. Nees, and K. Wiles. Row 5: P. Palmatier, G. Yike, R. Tanner, and M. Donovan. Row 6: B. Harriger, D. Moore, M. Bixler, and J. Maticic.

Ski Club Increases Membership

In its second year at MHS, Ski Club greatly increased its membership and expanded its activities. Every Wednesday that there was good skiing weather, the club piled into a bus and made the trip to the Brandywine ski slopes. In addition to these regular trips, pre-paid skiers were entitled to extra free trips.

One skier, Eve Krosse, was a candidate for Snow Queen at a Brandywine dance.

Ski Club officers this year were Marcia Suddleson – President, Jane Guiltinan – Vice-President, Anne Guiltinan – Secretary, and Portia Elliott – Treasurer.

Future Homemakers of America

Seated: D. Morton, C. Rooy, and B. Rooy. Standing: L. Gasper, K. Phillips, N. Indoe, L. Skidmore, R. Feron, B. Stillman, H. Gasper.

Judging by its long list of activities this year, FHA was one of the most active clubs at MHS. Its service projects included leaf raking, visiting those in the county home, and making favors for hospitalized children. Constructive projects included bake sales, candy sales, and a paper drive. FHA social events included potluck suppers and a slumber party.

In addition to these events, FHA members were always learning new home-making techniques as a part of their regular activities. FHA officers were Cindy Rooy – President, Barb Rooy – Vice-President, Debbie Fetzer – Treasurer, Denise Morton – Secretary, and Linda Gasper – Historian. Advisers were Miss Hornberger and Mrs. McMullen.

Right: The FHA emblem.

Our Sharpshooters: Rifle Club

1968-1969 was Rifle Club's first year at MHS. The purpose of the club was to teach the members the proper techniques and sport and target shooting, and the proper care and handling of firearms. The officers of the club were John Burke – President, Mark Jameyson – Vice-President, Dave Ingram – Treasurer, Nancee Klein – Secretary, and Mike Grieve – Range officer. Mrs. Rasmussen was adviser.

The club met Thursday nights in the indoor rifle range in the basement of the Security Federal Bank. Several courses were available to members; two of them were the Light Rifle course and All Position Expert Course. The team competed in the Winter League Program, Sectionals, and the National Postal Matches (which were held in a four month series).

This club was open to all high school students approved by the executive committee. There was a registration fee of $3.00.

Every member strove to earn the highest medal in the Junior Qualification Program. There were fifteen different medals possible to attain, earned through a step-by-step process. The highest medal possible was the Distinguished Expert medal. All members of the club shot with .22 caliber rifles.

Row 1: J. Carten, M. Jameyson, G. Miavitz, M. Grieve, and R. Kitchen. Row 2: R. Pritchard, J. Markle, G. McClung, J. Courtney, P. Baird, J. Eble, and Mrs. Rasmussen. Row 3: B. Eaton, J. Burke, D. Ingram, B. Lowey, J. Stone, and C. Jamison.

Language Club Adds International Flavor to MHS

Language Club was reorganized this year by a group of interested students and adviser Mr. Baker. Its purpose was to stimulate interest in foreign language study, and this purpose was carried out by such activities as meetings, internationally flavored parties, and a convention with members of other schools' language clubs, held in the spring.

The officers of Language Club this year included Wendy Marquardt – President, Gayle Bixler – Vice-President, Brian Beck – Treasurer, and Marcia Sirrine – Secretary.

MHS Celebrates Lincoln's Birthday With Slave Auction

Upper Left: Debbie Eckert is a pretty kind slave owner: she baked a cake for her high priced slave ($13.50), Mike Cleary.

One of the senior class's most ambitious projects was sponsorship of a slave auction. The object of the auction was to raise money for Camp Paradise, and it was a huge success, netting over $450. Members of the senior and junior classes and the faculty volunteered to be auctioned to the highest bidder of the student body.

Lower Left: Oh, Vickie Crane! Don't worry about what that old photographer thinks of your outfit. We think it looks stunning.

1968 Homecoming Queen Makes the Weekend a Success by Inspiring the Team to Victory

1967 Homecoming Queen Jan Wilkinson crowns our radiant 1968 Queen.

Homecoming 1968 was based on the theme "Honey is the Nectar of the Gods." The theme was reflected in both floats; the senior float resembled a Greek temple, and the junior float was a Viking ship. The seniors won the competition for their second first-place in as many tries.

The weekend was a success from Thursday's parade to Friday's victory and the Saturday evening dance.

The senior and junior floats stand in repose on the football field.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on the weekend of May 16 through May 18. Activities ranged from the banquet on Friday night to the dance and post-prom activities at Montrose on Saturday night.

The Prom was held at Chippewa Lake Ballroom, which was decorated in the style of a huge Tahitian garden. Prom King and Queen, Rick Williams and Jane Pennington were crowned at 10:00 and reigned over the remaining activities.

After the dance, Montrose was open to all juniors and seniors. After-Prom activities included a movie, putt-putt golf, swimming, and tennis. Excellent planning and much hard work helped to make the Prom an exciting event.

Two Hundred Forty-Four Seniors Make Grade

Thursday, June 5, 1969 at 8:00 was the end of high school days for 244 seniors but the beginning of another adventure.

The exercises, held in the stadium for the first time, were pleasant and colorful. Those who had doubts about the weather during the day worried in vain for the night was cool and dry.

Kathy Batchelder and Bill Harriger chose topic titles, "A Window Facing Tomorrow," and "A Short Look Back, and a Long Look Forward," for their speeches.

Lt. Gov. John W. Brown presented an address entitled, "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star."

Climaxing the evening, was a reception in the high school for seniors and their guests.

There were no Baccalaureate services this year.

Seniors getting their final instructions just before the processional.

Lt. Gov. John W. Brown, a native Medinian, was guest speaker for the evening.

Kathy Batchelder and Bill Harriger were senior speakers for the evening.

Waiting in line for the processional.

Seniors in file during the processional.

The processional is complete and the Class of '69 awaits the invocation.

MHS Class of '69 Receive Coveted Diplomas

Mr. E. W. P. Smith presents diplomas to Sue Molner (above) and John Porter (below).

at Ninety-Fourth Annual Commencement

MHS Class of '69 pauses for further proceedings during Commencement exercises in the stadium.

At last — it's all over! The locker rooms beneath the bleachers are mass confusion as graduation gowns are handed in; last goodbyes are said; and a few tears are shed.

Snap

Upper Right: Jim Palinchik steps to the mike to speak out for his wrestling buddies.

Right: "Oh, Brian! How can I get this make-up on you if you keep flirting with me" giggles a fair, young miss.

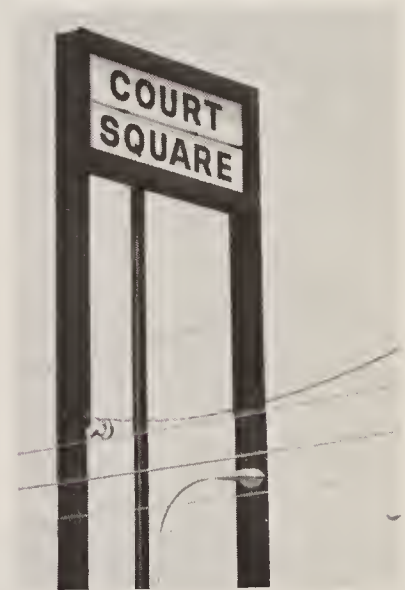

Lower Left: We still maintain there's a need for spelling to be taught at the high school level.

Lower Right: As usual the girls are watching the boys as Carol Biliczky, Jane Pennington, and Sandy Johnson have their eyes on Bob Drogell and Jim Smith.

The school year has finally come to a close. Looking back, it was a great year. Many things remained the same, while others were greatly changed. For the first time, there were only seven periods and lunch, rather than the usual nine periods. Lunch times were shortened in order to provide enough time and space for the more than 1100 students at MHS. School started and dismissed much earlier, allowing students more free time for after-school activities and jobs.

As happens every year, many favorite teachers and students were no longer here, but new teachers were welcomed along with several new students, including a freshman class of more than 300. More vocational courses were offered, as well as courses for the college-bound student. Several new organizations came into being and the Student Council drew up a new constitution for the student body.

Sports events were as exciting as ever, with Medina capturing the Southwestern Conference titles in varsity track and jayvee basketball. Medina sent three athletes to State and they represented their school well. The traditional Homecoming and Prom activities were greatly enjoyed, and for the first time, a highly successful slave auction was held for charity. The year also had its somber note as a special assembly was held in memory of the late Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Graduation, the final event of the year, was held outside at the stadium. For many, it was a happy occasion, but for others it was rather sad. Many friends will never again be seen and many happy memories will soon be forgotten.

The Editor would like to thank the yearbook staff, Mr. Webb, Sylvar Studios, Jeff Borden, the Medina County Gazette, and all others who helped make this book possible.

Now, here is your 1969 MEDINIAN.
